"I use Ziena & Ariane lines, that fit our style of coastal California cuisine. They look great indoor & outdoor, and fits very well with our private dining room theme. We regularly get great comments about our plates. I am excited about the wide range of colors, styles & shapes that TriMark has to offer."

Johan Denizot, Executive Chef
El Encanto Resort | Santa Barbara CA

"We use Crystalex Rhapsody wine & the Crystalex Blues Single Old-Fashioned Rocks glasses because of their reliability. These glasses have a simple & timeless look that blends in perfectly with our aesthetic. We are looking at the Venu steak knives to order next from the catalog."

Dorien Murphy, Executive Steward
Sagamore Pendry | Baltimore MD

"I use Venu Bone China plates & bowls. I like them because they have a clean & edgy finish. I appreciate the five-year chip warranty [on flat plates]. Customers ask where they can find these plates & bowls for themselves."

Puja Verma, Director of Ops. & Development
Kiran's Restaurant & Lounge | Houston TX

"We feature china from the Venu line & love that they have a classic, clean look that is modern & complements the beautiful setting we have here at Colonial Downs Racetrack. Our guests feel like they can hold any type of event & the plateware will complement their setting too. We will be looking to increase our buffet serving pieces in 2020 & can't wait to see what Premier has to offer!"

Noel Mahler, Special Events Manager
Colonial Downs Racetrack | New Kent VA

“Ariane Artisan plates & Crystalex wine glasses provide a wide array of shapes & colors that allow our teams to expand their culinary creativity. Our Chefs find inspiration with the styling of the brand that leads to unique plating or the creation of new dishes. As one of Miami’s few homegrown restaurant groups with multiple brands it’s important for us to create restaurants that are unique & distinct. Premier Collections products coupled with quality & cost-effective core brands allow us create tabletops that match our objectives. With 5 new restaurant openings on the horizon we are extremely excited about what new items TriMark will bring to the table next!”

Eddie U Acevedo, Chief Operating Officer
Grove Bay Hospitality Group | Miami FL

“We use Venu Signature, Ziena & Tria Neo Plus. What I like most, is the attention to customer service & detail. I have been buying from TriMark for over 15 years, and their commitment to serving us is very special to me. When we visited the Innovation Center we were treated like royalty. We run a high-end retirement community and scratch cook for 300 residents & their guests. Our food is made that much more special & attractive by using all the lines we discovered at the Innovation Center. I know we will be able to find what we want with the knowledge of TriMark’s expert staff guiding us.”

Maria Garcia, Culinary Director
RiverMead | Peterborough NH

“We use TriMark Premier Collections because it is a great way to present our members a piece of art on every dish. Our members love this collection, they feel special & important. I am always looking for uniqueness & something that others don’t have in their repertoire.”

Ed Conter, General Manager
Briarwood Country Club | Deerfield IL

Delicate & Durable

The addition of bone ash to the composition of this dinnerware gives it a more translucent and warmer appeal than porcelain and provides the strength to hold up in high capacity settings.

New Collection

New Ariane
Oxide
Textured Fly Ash

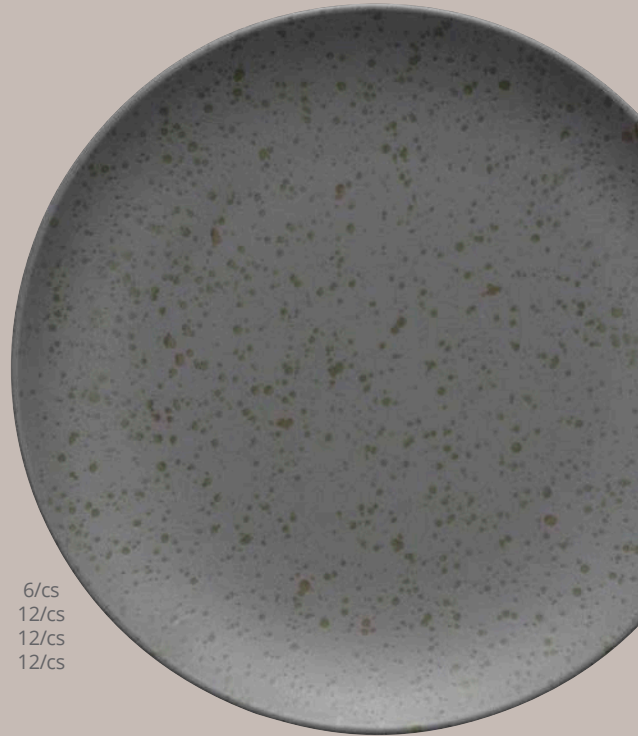

Our new Oxide Collection displays subtle texture and color with exceptional style and soft organic shapes for a genuinely unique and memorable dining experience. Impeccably designed and crafted, the collection features unevenly spread oxide spots giving it a truly modern, artistic look. The collection features two color palettes, Textured Fly Ash with a coppery-brown fine ash sprinkled over a soft gray surface and Pearl White featuring a white-on-white design.

Ariane Oxide Textured Pearl White

The second new color in the Oxide Collection is Textured White Pearl, aptly named for a white-on-white speckled surface. Pearly sparkling speckles are dusted over an almost matte white surface, creating a subtle and sophisticated palette for an exquisite presentation of your cuisine.

Ariane Artisan Endless Appeal

We have exciting new additions to our very versatile Ariane Artisan collection with two new color lines! Introducing Sapphire, an earthy teal hue, and Coast, a warm, sunny beige. We're now featuring eight colors in our Artisan collection. In addition to Black Dazzle, Crème, Desert Sage, Matte White, Ocean, and Pebble we now have Sapphire and Coast. And the best part of the Artisan line is mixing any of the colors to create truly unique and enticing tablescapes. There are countless color combinations: try mixing the cool blue of Ocean with the warmth of Coast or balance the vibrancy of Sapphire with the peaceful tone of Desert Sand. Use the Ariane Artisan palette to echo your décor and highlight your cuisine. Have fun with this collection and excite your guests' senses. Remember, we "eat" with our eyes even before we taste the food!

Two New Colors!

Mix and Match:

The Artisan Collection is all about the play of color and texture. It's about building a table design that's modern and fresh while being inspired by handcrafted designs that embody the shapes and glazes from hand thrown pottery. The design highlights the craft of artisans in creating unique glazes and textures including gloss, matte, smooth, and textured pieces. (Click on color to see available products)

Levantine Food

American diners are enjoying more food from the Levant region along the eastern Mediterranean shores. Turkey, Israel, Lebanon, Syria, Jordan, and other nearby countries offer a wealth of luscious flavors and textures that are showing up more and more. Think of seafood from the Eastern Mediterranean like Branzino, octopus, mussels, squid, and shrimp. Warming spices like paprika, cumin, cayenne, cinnamon, and pepper along with aromatics like sumac, saffron, fennel, and coriander are lavishly used. Hummus, feta, halloumi, eggplant, olives, pomegranates, mint, lemon, pistachios, and yogurt are staples and also perfect for vegetarian and vegan diets that are also trending today. Try adding these vibrant Mediterranean flavors to your table as mezze with warm pita for scooping, or make a salad dressing using pomegranate vinegar, olive oil, and blood oranges.

Plant-Based Foods

Plant-based foods are a trend here to stay, and their prominence is becoming more mainstream. Bloomberg Intelligence estimates the global plant-based market will grow from US$30 billion to US$160 billion by 2030. That's 533%! There are a multitude of new companies coming online with a variety of plant-based "meat" made from soy, pea protein, grains, wheat gluten, beans, and legumes. The newest meat substitute being produced by a handful of start-ups is made from mycelium, the network of thread-like cells from which mushrooms grow. Dairy-free milk sales also continue to grow. In addition to soy, coconut, oat, and all the nut- and seed-based milks available today. Potato milk is showing up in Europe.

With people eating less meat, vegan cuisine is no longer an option limited to those with full vegan diets, and as variety increases, it's become more appealing to people with flexitarian, vegetarian, and even omnivorous diets.

Dining Out

After the pandemic when people couldn't dine out, take-out sales soared. Today people are hankering for a dining experience where they can enjoy fabulous culinary creations, wines and spirits, while socializing with friends. Lingering over a meal while enjoying incredible food and friendship is on the rise. People today want meaningful and memorable dining experiences with ambiance and gracious service. Whether in a casual bistro or a fine dining restaurant people want to dine out today and enjoy the experience.

Global Cuisine

The pandemic ushered in experimentation with different cuisines and flavors. Whether trying new international recipes in the home kitchen or the willingness to try take-out from cuisines never tried before, diners are enjoying more global cuisine. Fusion-style cuisine has become a pillar on many menus today. Consumers have adventured outside of the usual European-inspired options and have begun exploring more flavors from around the world. With this trend likely to continue over time, expect to see more Korean-, Filipino-, Japanese-, Middle Eastern-, and African-inspired dishes on menus.

Health-Conscious Food Will Dominate Menus

With increasing customer inclination towards a health-conscious diet, the restaurant industry must adapt to the trend by adding dishes catering to their health-conscious guests. Younger generations are willing to pay higher prices for healthy meals specifically tied to buzzwords such as GMO-free, all-natural, or organic. The focus on seasonal and local produce is important to health-conscious diners. A multitude of grains such as faro, black rice, quinoa, and spelt will appear more frequently on menus, as will nuts, seeds, legumes, and pulses. More guests will request plant-based meat alternatives.

The Rise of Craft Cocktails

The explosion in craft cocktails follows in the footsteps of small-batch artisanal brewing. There are several key factors in addition to creativity and originality that make up a craft cocktail. They must be made with high-quality ingredients including fresh fruit and herbs, as well as the best spirits. Handmade syrups and infusions are created to develop a unique flavor profile, and craft cocktails are mixed with great attention to detail. Precision is used in muddling ingredients, stirring, or shaking, and the cocktail is garnished beautifully. Serve craft cocktails in beautiful glassware to enhance the guest's experience.
